grab the rarest banknote from Presidency issue. Allahabad circle Issued in 1862 for, funding war, Issued by Army details and Authority ref : from British Parliament questions hour. Discussed 2 times. Many people think this is hundi item but such interest carrying banknotes were issued in USA and many other countries. Here is the proof .My attitude talk with proof to make my word strong. Issued in 1882 according to seal on back only present on few notes, Issued for 60to 80 Rs according to period and with interest plus profit added to this note will be R100 on Maturity on 1 Feb 1891
.Interest was Calculated at 4% per annum. Most notes were cancelled on maturity due to collapse of shares and steel rates during that era. This note was much appreciated by senior world collectors in Hong Kong etc. during my visit there before

UNUSUAL ITEMS BANKNOTES

32 SILK NOTE GERMANY 5000000 FIVE CRORE /500 DMM
INFLATION NOTE, ISSUED FOR USE IN BIELFIED

First WW1 PEACE NOTE ~ 5 Mark UNC German, Currency 1923 ISSUE, bible references on a note in Germany. Est 9000-15000

This note is without the official round stamp that was so common on these notes making it all the more rare. It truly is a remarkably beautiful bank note and rock solid investment.

The central illustration is the figure of a woman carrying bags of money, exposing her breasts, while men stare on with lust. Beneath is the text: "Dich lieben wir böse, vielmehr als die verse", which means "We love the stock exchange, rather than the verse". The verse in question is indicated below the figure in small letters and is a quotation from the Holy Bible from Matthew 23:17, which says: "You blind fools, which is greater, the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred?" The left illustration is an impoverished looking man, and around the illustration are references to two verses of the Holy Bible: Jeremiah 2:16 "Also, the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have shaved the crown of your head", and Job 16:11 "God has turned me over to evil men and thrown me into the clutches of the wicked". The right illustration is a figure representing President Woodrow Wilson, holding a "dollar sack".

Naked people trampling over the now impoverished Germany and Austria whilst dancing around a statue of the fattened golden calf. bag whilst spilling forth money from of his pockets which are floating to the ground. The left illustration is a naked figure passing by a sack of Dollars under a cloudy sky the golden calf, stop, you have at the end of your life only yourself." this section is text is reference to a passage from the Holy Bible within the book of Exodus.

Around the figure it says 'The dollar rises', dollar 4.2 mark 1914, 118,000 Mark 1923. The right illustration is a naked figure beside a sack of Pounds, under a sunny sky. Around the figure it says: 'The egg rises afterwards. An egg, 5 pfennig 1914, 1500 Mark 1923' The words at the top of the back say: "Wenn die menschen aller sorten tanzen um die goldnen kalber, halte sest, du hast am ende doch vom leben nur dich selber", which roughly translated means: Around the figure it says 'The dollar rises', dollar 4.2 mark 1914, 118,000 Mark 1923. 230 Makrai State coin lay in the Central Provinces within the Harda tahsil of Hoshangabad District of 155 square miles Mughal rulers conferred the traditional title of Raja Hatiyarai to the rulers of Makrai.. The Makrai state was one of the original constituent members of the Chamber of Princes, The princely state of Makrai was founded in the 16th century by Rajgond Raja karkat shah. The native rulers of Makrai state belonged to the earliest Raj Gond dynasty. It is considered that Raja Karkat shah of Chandrapur received the territory from the ruler of the Garha Mandla kingdom.
